

Take your office extension to your mobile with our new mobile app

The app has a user friendly interface so you can easily make/ receive phone calls, place calls on hold and transfer calls to another extension number (which of course is free if it's on our network or an outside telephone number.

Simply log in with your mobile credentials and use your office extension

Be in the office even when you are out!